The world handles the word 'friend' lightly, its real, true deeper meaning is forgotten. Your friend is the one who appreciates your faults as well as your virtues - who understands and sympathises with your defeats and victories, your aims and ideas, your joys and temptations, your hopes and disappointments, as no one else does on can. It is your friend to whom, you turn for counsel, for comfort, for praise; he may not be as learned as some or as wise as others, but it suffices that he understands you, and even his quiet listening gives strength and courage. Blessed is the man or woman into whose life has come the beauty and power of such a friendship.
